KONGJU NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

KOREAN HOMELAND EDUCATION

National Institute for International Education (NIIED) is a national agency under the Ministry of Education established to educate overseas Koreans and promote international educational exchange and cooperation. It is responsible for planning, selecting, administering, and evaluating Korean Homeland Education.

Kongju National University is a university that fosters secondary school teachers. The university established the Institution of Korean Culture & Education, specializing in the education of overseas Koreans. The Institution operates domestic education programs (education, student guidance)

⌂ What is Korean Homeland Education for overseas Koreans?

'Korean Homeland Education (K-HED)' is an educational program for overseas Koreans made to cultivate the ethnic identity of overseas Koreans and help next-generation overseas Koreans grow into global talents. This program comprises the Korean language, Korean culture, Korean history classes, global citizenship, and field learning.

K-HED is the only long-term educational program for overseas Koreans in the nation that provides career guidance and a network of overseas Koreans.

⌂ We recommend 'K-HED' to the following people.
